

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA

Organized in 1804, the building was completed and dedicated in 1812. During the Confederate or Civil War the church was used as a military hospital and temporary detention camp for prisoners of war — Woodrow Wilson's father, the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D.D., served as pastor from 1858 to 1870.

Color by Morgan Fitz Photographers

Genuine Natural Color Made by Dexter Press, Inc., West Nyack, N. Y.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post Card